

QCCI Spring 2010 Training Series

Staunton Public Library, Churchville Ave., Meeting Room, 2nd floor

Evening workshops will meet from 6:30-8:30 pm

Saturday class is 9:30—11:30 am

- Feb 27— Play is Child's Work
Play promotes language development, literacy and all other areas of children's growth. Learn about how you can expand and enrich curriculum through play.
Instructor: Patricia Hughes, M.Ed., Project STAR Parent Educator & former teacher
*Saturday class meets at 9:30 am. Snow date is March 13th.
- March 11— SpecialQuest
SpecialQuest provides resources, tools, and strategies to break down barriers, build up communities, and bridge gaps for full inclusion of individuals with disabilities.
Instructor: Julie Kiracofe, M.Ed., R.N.
- March 22— Read, Read, Read!
Learn about the benefits of reading to young children and exposing them to books at an early age.
Instructor: Patricia Hughes, M.Ed., Project STAR Parent Educator & former teacher
- April 20— Preschool Topics
 Offered in conjunction with local public schools. Description to be provided in late February.
Instructor: Sherry Bourgeois, M. Ed., Lead Teacher (Staunton Public Schools)
- May 6— Cooking with Kids
Cooking provides a wealth of opportunities for children to explore new tastes, see scientific principles in action and build math skills.
Instructor: Julie Kiracofe, M.Ed., R.N.
- May 19— Transitions in Preschool
 Offered in conjunction with local public schools. Description to be provided in late February.
Instructor: Sara Minigh, M.Ed., Lead Teacher (Shenandoah Valley Head Start)

COST: Free*

The Spring 2010 Training Series is sponsored by

REGISTRATION :
245-5437 or SarahFoster@ntelos.net
Registration IS required

Free for child care providers in Waynesboro, Staunton, Augusta County & Highland County.
All others - $10.00/class.